GLENMEDE

An independent and privately held investment and wealth management firm, Glenmede was founded in 1956 to manage the charitable assets of the Pew family—seven individual trusts which serve as the primary funding source for the non-profit entity The Pew Charitable Trusts. Today Glenmede provides highly customized investment, fiduciary and advisory services to high-net-worth individuals and families, endowments, foundations and institutional entities, representing $37 billion of assets under management as of 6/30/20.
