Morris James LLP

Founded in 1931, Morris James is a full service law firm with 70 lawyers located in six offices throughout the state of Delaware. The firm is comprised of formidable lawyers deeply committed to anticipating and meeting the needs of our clients through innovation, technology and an emphasis on client service. Our client-first philosophy, multi-disciplinary approach, and collective experience earn us high regard from clients, peers, and the Delaware community.

We combine our interdisciplinary legal skills and experience with a passion for understanding the client's business and industry to provide sophisticated and cost-effective legal counsel. We often act in an outside general counsel-type role, applying our versatile skill-set to serving the increasingly complex and interrelated tax, business, financing, real estate, employment, commerce, regulatory and other transactional needs of our clients.
